

T: +44 (0)20 7583 1315
E: clerks@tgchambers.com
W: tgchambers.com/

<https://tgchambers.com/member-profile/william-hoskins/>

William Hoskins

Year of Call: 1980

Practice Areas

- Inquests
- Personal Injury
- Professional Discipline

Email:

whoskins@tgchambers.com

Experience

Substantial experience of heavy personal injury litigation and high profile inquests. Also wide experience of professional regulatory law. Recent cases have included liability for delayed treatment of decompression illness in a diver, an accident in a factory in the Czech Republic and multi-party claims arising out of multiple accidents caused by the condition of the highway.

Appointments

Legally Qualified Chair, Medical Practitioners Tribunal Service, and Legal Adviser to the General Dental Council, General Optical Council, Nursing & Midwifery Council, Royal College of Veterinary Surgeons, Farriers Registration Council and Social Work England.

Memberships

PIBA
ARDL

Cases

Sabir v Osei-Kwabena EWCA Civ 1213 .LTL 25.11.2015

EWCA Civ 1213 LTL 25.11.2015

25/02/2016

Barristers involved: William Hoskins
Contributory negligence of pedestrian,

Gilman v UPS & Network Rail Infrastructure Ltd

EWHC 2341 2341 (TCC).LTL 15.08.2013

15/08/2013

Barristers involved: William Hoskins

Car running onto railway track from adjacent car park. Analysis of responsibility between occupiers of car park and vehicle insurers

R(Butler) v Black Country Coroner

[2010] Inquest LR 50 Admin Ct.2010 EWHC 43 (Admin) LTL27.01.2010

2010

Barristers involved: William Hoskins

Investigative powers of Coroner

Department of Transport v Mitchell

[2006] 1 WLR 3356 CA

2006

Barristers involved: William Hoskins

Extent of duty to maintain under s 41 Highways Act 1980

Sandhar v DETR

[2005] 1WLR 1632

2005

Barristers involved: William Hoskins

Extent of duty to maintain under s41 Highways Act 1980.
