

Anne Coulon

Call 2013

✉ acoulon@tgchambers.com

☎ +44 (0)20 7583 1315

Anne Coulon is a public international lawyer trained in France, Germany and the United States, with substantial experience in the field of inter-State litigation at the highest level.

Anne advises States and other actors on issues of public international law, particularly in proceedings before the International Court of Justice, arbitral tribunals, the International Criminal Court, regional Courts and various UN bodies.

Anne's areas of expertise include territorial and maritime frontier disputes, the law of the sea, the law of treaties, diplomatic and consular relations, State immunity and immunities of State officials, State responsibility, international environmental law, international humanitarian law, international criminal law and human rights.

Before joining Temple Garden Chambers, Anne spent several years working at the International Court of Justice in The Hague, where she served inter alia as the principal legal advisor to the President of the Court, H.E. Judge Ronny Abraham, during his three-year mandate.

Anne is based in TGC's office in The Hague.

Expertise

International Law

Anne has a broad practice in international law, advising and representing clients in respect of proceedings before the International Court of Justice (ICJ), the International Criminal Court (ICC), Regional Courts and UN bodies, as well as in national proceedings.

Notable International Law cases

Advising a foreign Government on jurisdictional and substantive issues in relation to ICJ proceedings.

Advising and representing the Government of Afghanistan in ICC proceedings, as co-counsel in a team led by Rodney Dixon QC.

Acting as co-counsel for the East Turkistan Government in Exile and the East Turkistan National Awakening Movement, led by Rodney Dixon QC, in a complaint filed with the ICC Prosecutor requesting the opening of an investigation into the crimes committed against the Uyghurs falling within the jurisdiction of the Court.

Representing victims of gross human rights violations during the pre-colonial and colonial era in Kenya in the context of special procedures of the UN Human Rights Council (instructed by JK Bosek & Associates, Nairobi, and the Governor of Kericho and Bomet Counties, and led by Rodney Dixon QC).

Representing victims of torture in universal jurisdiction criminal proceedings within Europe.

Representing an individual in challenges of sanctions adopted by the UN, the EU, as well as national jurisdictions.

Representing an individual in a case against a European State before the European Court of Human Rights (ECHR).

Education

- LL.M. in International Legal Studies, NYU School of Law (2012)
- Master's Degree in Public International Law, University of Paris II Panthéon-Assas (2011)
- Magister Legum (LL.M. Köln / Paris 1), University of Cologne (2010)
- Double degree in French and German Law, University of Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne (2010)

Languages

- French

- Spanish
- German
- Dutch

Memberships

- French Society for International Law
- European Society of International Law