

Murdo Macleod KC (Scot)

Call 1994 | Silk 2008

mmacleod@tgchambers.com

+44 (0)20 7583 1315

Murdo Macleod KC specialises in Inquiries and in Health and Safety matters, where he has been repeatedly ranked as a "Star Individual" in the Chambers Bar Directory and a "Leading Silk" in the Legal 500, in Scotland.

He has acted for major clients in the energy, construction, healthcare and transport sectors, and for numerous public authorities, including: the NHS, HM Inspectorate of Constabulary, Police Scotland, the Scottish Prison Service, the Care Inspectorate and various local authorities and health boards.

In the field of financial crime, he is regularly instructed to represent individuals in trials and to assist companies with reporting obligations and investigations.

Murdo has appeared in many statutory public inquiries, including: the Billy Wright Inquiry (serving as Senior Counsel to the Inquiry in Northern Ireland between 2005 and 2010), the Edinburgh Tram Inquiry, the Scottish Hospitals Inquiry, the Scottish COVID-19 Inquiry, the UK Covid-19 Inquiry, the Undercover Policing Inquiry and the Sheku Bayoh Inquiry.

Murdo represented the second accused, Lamin Fhimah, in the Pan-Am/Lockerbie bombing trial in the Netherlands. Other notable High Court acquittals include Andy Coulson in his trial for perjury, Yousif Badri, a Doctor charged with terrorist offences, and Andrew Grant, managing director of a haulage company, charged with gross negligence homicide. In 2021, he defended the Chief Constable of Police Scotland in a landmark prosecution following a missed '999' call.

As a prosecutor, he served as Crown Counsel and Senior Crown Counsel between 2001 and 2005.

Since 2012, Murdo has been UK delegate to the Criminal Law Committee of the Council of Bars and Law Societies of Europe (CCBE). He is also a practising advocate at the Scottish Bar (Compass Chambers).

Expertise

Inquests & Inquiries

Recognised as a “Public Inquires specialist” in Chambers & Partners, Murdo was counsel to the inquiry in the first inquiry to be held under the 2005 Act, the ‘Billy Wright’ Inquiry (2005-2010): a major public inquiry into alleged state collusion in the murder of a prominent Northern Irish paramilitary prisoner, and the management of the Maze prison. He was vetted to highest level (DV).

Since that time he has appeared for Core Participants in many important statutory, and other, inquiries acting either for commercial organisations or public authorities. He is currently writing a chapter on the law and practice of public inquiries for the Stair Memorial Encyclopaedia.

Notable Inquests & Inquiries cases

Scottish Covid Inquiry (2021)

Representing core participant in Inquiry into effects of Covid.

M9 Inquiry (2021)

Representing Police Scotland in Inquiry into failure to respond to fatal car accident car, following missed 999 call.

Scottish Hospitals Inquiry (2020)

Representing international architects firm in Public Inquiry into delay and design issues in two hospitals.

'Sheku' Bayo Inquiry (2020)

Representing Asst Chief Constable in Inquiry into circumstances of death and perceived or actual race.

AM Inquiry (2017-2018)

Represented Scottish Prison Service in Inquiry into death of prisoner while under restraint.

Edinburgh Tram Inquiry (2017)

Representing consortium partner in Inquiry into delay and overspend in major infrastructure project.

Superpuma Inquiry (2013-2014)

Represented leading helicopter manufacturer in Inquiry into death of 14 people in North Sea helicopter crash.

'Billy Wright' Inquiry (2005-2010)

Senior Counsel to the Inquiry in the first Inquiry under the 2005 Act into alleged state sponsored murder of leading paramilitary prisone. Vetted to highest level (DV).

Health & Safety

Murdo is recognised as a "Star Individual" for Health & Safety in Scotland in the Chambers Bar Guide 2022.

He also has considerable experience in environmental and other regulatory areas. Companies he has advised and represented include: BP, Premier Oil, Taqa Bratani, Exxon, Airbus, CHC Helicopters, Eurocopter, Dandara Homes, BAM Nuttall, J Murphy and sons, Forth Crossing Bridge Constructors, Collyer Bristow, IBI architects, Freshcatch, HC One, Kalyx, Klondyke, North British Distillery, Shetland Catch, Scottish Power, Siemens, Scotrail and Sodexo.

He has also been instructed by numerous organisations, including: the Crown Office, the Prison Service, the NHS, the Care Inspectorate and various police forces, local authorities and health boards.

Notable Health & Safety cases

HMA v Chief Constable

Representing Chief Constable in High Court prosecution arising from missed '999' call.

HMA v AG (2021)

Representing company director in High Court s.2/culpable homicide case.

HMA v BP (2021)

Representing oil company in fatal s.2 case.

HMA v B (2021)

Representing construction company in fatal s.2 case.

HMA v JMS (2020)

Represented construction company in s.2 case involving major gas leak.

HMA v H (2019)

Represented UK's largest care-home provider in s.3 prosecution following death of resident.

HMA v NBD (2017-2018)

Represented UK's largest distillery, charged with various s.2 and 3 legionella-related offences.

HMA v DMS Ltd (2017-2018)

Represented director of waste management company in environmental pollution case.

HMA v D (2017-2018)

Defended major building company in landmark property misdescription prosecution.

Geddes v Johnson (2017)

Defended health and safety advisers in commercial court action.

Appointments

- Crown Counsel
- Senior Crown Counsel
- Special Counsel (PII)

Memberships

- HSLA
- CBA

Recommendations

- "His easygoing, calm and practical approach wins clients over as much as his clear, concise advice and encyclopedic knowledge of the law." "Despite the fact that he is the leader, he is also a team player" and puts everyone at ease." Chambers & Partners 2022

- "His court practice is exemplary." "An extremely capable advocate in the health and safety sphere." "His expertise in both health and safety and crime is a real asset." Chambers & Partners 2021
- "Murdo is a careful and thorough public inquiries specialist with good client skills." "His main strength is the way he acts with his clients." "He is very emphatic in tough situations and does not shy away from having to give difficult advice." "Very professional, diligent and dedicated." "A genuine expert in his area." Chambers & Partners 2020
- "He has a terrific intellect." "A gifted advocate whose advice is always careful and considered." "A fearless and tenacious cross-examiner, he is an impressive figure in court." Legal 500 2020